TOURISTS RUSHING OUT OF NATION'S BIG PARK

Due to the closing of the Yellowstone Park hotels today, tourists depending on hotel accommodations, are expected to leave the park by all gateways.

"In this emergency," according to an order issued by General Passenger Agent W. S. Bassinger of the Union Pacific, "many tourists desire to leave the park by way of the nearest gateway regardless of the route of their tickets. Arrangements, therefore, have been made for honoring via the Union Pacific system tickets reading via Northern Pacific and Burlington from the other park gateways."

In the notice of the closing of the hotels, the railroad officials were advised that the Yellowstone Special would be continued in operation until Sept. 16 and that tourists could make their own arrangements for camping outfits.

The Shaw & Powell people will continue to carry tourists through the Park until September 15.

Supt. Fred Gentsch of the Oregon Short Line dining cars and hotels, went north on a special train last evening, which is to bring back the hotel employees at the entrance of the Park.

TEN DOZEN OF FRESH
EGGS FOR GERMAN

"Where are the babies?" said Frank M. Driggs, chairman of the baby show for Ogden's fifth annual Harvest Festival and Fashion Show this morning. "We have sent out notices to 1200 mothers of babies born in Ogden during the past two years. So far it looks like over 500 babies would be entered, a number of them from outside cities and towns and the rural districts, but there ought to be more."

The committee suggests that if any mother has not entered her baby in the contest she is requested to telephone to No. 588 and make the entry immediately. As there will be prizes for each and every baby, besides more than 100 competitive prizes, the committee hopes that the number for the show will be increased to 700 or more.

A list of the special prizes is now being compiled, many being added to the list already published. These include awards for the best Dutch, Japanese, German, colored, red-headed and "real American" babies.

Ben F. Redman of Salt Lake, who has given prizes each year for the red-headed babies, has renewed his offer this year, writing the following letter to Chairman Driggs:

"According to my usual custom, since the inauguration of the Fashion Show, I desire to again offer prizes for red-headed babies as follows: For the best looking girl baby with the reddest hair, a $5.00 gold piece, and for a pair of twin boys with red hair, $10.00. In using the term 'red,' no limitation goes, but it must be a real honest-to-goodness RED, with capital letters. Hoping the show will be up to standard, I am,

Respectfully yours,
"BEN F. REDMAN."

P. K. Smith made the offer today of 10 dozen fresh eggs as the prize for the prettiest German baby. W. E. Zuppan offered a prize of $5.00 for the best "real American" baby under two years of age.

Chairman Driggs said the indications point to at least a dozen entries of twins in the contest, more than have ever before taken part in the baby show.

The general interest that is being shown is in entries from out-of-town, one mother sending an entry from as far away as Hyde Park in Cache County, while others from all parts of Weber, Box Elder and Davis county are being listed.

Grecian King Abdicates Throne

The principal officers of the general staff are pupils of the Berlin Kriegsakademie, and are firmly convinced that Germany must ultimately win this war. This, and not fear of Bulgaria is the real reason of their opposition to Greece's participation in the operations against Turkey.

"The Queen, of course, as a Hohenzollern princess, is wholly for her mother's cause. Hardly a day passes but she receives from the German military attaché the official German war reports. I am informed by persons who are competent to know that on the evening preceding the King's final decision a long telegram from the Emperor was received at the Palace doubtless urging Greece's abstention from the war. I am also informed from the same source that the Queen openly declared that, if Greece took such action, she would immediately leave her adopted country."

London, Sept. 1, 1:23 a. m.—The surrender of several Greek garrisons to a committee which has taken over the administration of part of Greek Macedonia is reported in a Reuter dispatch from Saloniki.

According to this dispatch, the garrisons at Saloniki, Vodena and Port Little Karaburun have surrendered to the committee.

Various rumors are in circulation here in regard to the situation in Greece. Reuter dispatches from Saloniki say there has been fighting between the Greek garrison at Saloniki

Four Hundred or More
Men Will Be Called
Out by the Strike

There will be but little freight left in the local union railway terminal yards should the strike of the trainmen not be averted, according to local Southern Pacific and Union Pacific officials. The last two trainloads of California fruit sent out of California over the Southern Pacific since the embargo notice was posted, will arrive in Ogden tonight and be hurried on toward destination over the Union Pacific. Fruit picking has been stopped in the immense California citrus groves and orchards, fruit pickers and contractors are sitting back anxiously awaiting the outcome of the proposed action of congress today and hoping that the strike order will be rescinded.

Should the strike occur as scheduled on the morning of September 4, and Greek volunteers recently organized to assist the Greek regulars who are resisting the Bulgarians in Macedonia.

French troops intervened to suppress the fighting and the garrison finally surrendered and marched out of Saloniki.

Fighting occurred in Saloniki, the correspondent adds, but serious trouble was prevented by the intervention of soldiers of the entente.

"The revolution claimed its first victim at 4:30 o'clock this morning," the correspondent cables. "Cretan gendarmes and Macedonian volunteers surrounded the barracks of the Greek infantry in Saloniki and exchanged shots with the garrison. But for the intervention of the allies the consequences might have been more serious."

"After half promising to participate in a demonstration arranged yesterday by a pro-ally committee, the Greek troops finally refused. During the night the pro-ally volunteers made a determined attempt to seize the barracks but failed. It is asserted one gendarme was killed and that two were wounded. The losses of the loyalists have not been ascertained."

On its face this dispatch indicates that a revolution is under way in Greece, but the message is worded vaguely, probably on account of the censorship.

There have been various indications since the entrance of Rumania into the war of political turmoil in Greece owing to the conflicts between the neutralists, represented by King Constantine, and those who desire to intervene in the war with the entente allies, led by former Premier Venizelos.

An Athens dispatch received yesterday predicted that Greece would abandon neutrality within the immediate future. It has also been reported that King Constantine was finding his position very difficult on account of the Greek strength of the pro-entente faction and it was reported from Saloniki in a dispatch filed on Tuesday that the king had taken flight to Larissa where he was under the protection of German soldiers. This report, however, was discredited in official circles in London.

There is in existence in Greece a committee representing the Liberal or Venizelos faction and it is possible that the Greek garrisons surrendered to this or some similar body. The committee was appointed on Sunday on the occasion of the demonstration of 50,000 Greeks before the residence of M. Venizelos in Athens and was instructed to present to the king resolutions warning him not to interfere in the approaching elections and to prepare the army for a possible rupture of existing conditions.

The part of Greek Macedonia in which the forts mentioned surrendered is in northern Greece close behind the front on which the entente allies are fighting the Bulgarians and their allies. Vodena is on the railroad line between Saloniki and Monastir, an important means of communication for the entente allies. It is 45 miles west of Saloniki. Port Little Karaburun is on the Gulf of Saloniki about ten miles south of the city.

Leaders Believe Success of Eight-Hour Bill

firm not to do so unless the eight-hour bill becomes a law before Sunday night.

Bill Certain of Passage.

Brotherhood leaders declared after a conference with Senator Newlands and others at the capitol that the eight-hour bill was certain of passing.

Democratic Leader Kitchin called upon the Adamson bill soon after the house met.

"I ask unanimous consent for its immediate consideration," he said.

"I object," said Republican Leader Mann.

Representative Harrison, Democrat, then offered the special rule and there was discussion on that. Mr. Harrison said congress, in the interest of the American people, ought to pass this bill by Saturday night and avert the strike.

Representative Bennett, Republican, denounced the proposed legislation.

"There are worse things than strikes," said Bennett, "and one of those things is the destruction of the American system of government. I don't propose to cast my vote with a pistol at my head."

Representative Cooper of Ohio, Republican, denied that labor was holding up congress as Mr. Bennett charged.

After a twenty minute session the committee of six senate Republicans authorized to draft substitute legislation was informed that the majority plan is to rush through the bills it has framed at once and to stay in session all night, if necessary, to pass them. The Republicans ad-between 400 and 500 Ogden residents would be called off their work. These include switchmen, engineers, firemen, trainmen and conductors, who have their homes or make their headquarters in this city. Of the number, approximately are Southern Pacific and Ogden Union Railway and Depot company train and yard employees, nearly 100 are Union Pacific train employees at Denver and Rio Grande quota is 85 men and the Oregon Short Line will lose about 20 men.

Addressing the train employees of the Union Pacific railroad in general regarding the attitude that corporation would take toward them in case the strike order is put into effect, General Manager W. F. Jeffers issued a bulletin late yesterday afternoon. A copy was received by Trainmaster Petroseny is the center of a rich coal field near the southern frontier of Transylvania, lying just north of the Valcian pass through the Transylvanian Alps. The occupation of Tarlunge valley indicates the Rumanians are extending their invasion of the extreme eastern portion of Transylvania.
